

Ways to Start a Conversation About Race and Racism

1. When did you first discover that you were different and how did it affect you then and now?
2. Tell me about your family and one thing that you hold dear about your culture and why?
3. What's something you notice about how racism plays itself out in media and your community?
4. What's a powerful quote you've heard in community/family growing up?